

SIRS LADIES
June 6, 1991

Good afternoon Sirs and Ladies,
We're glad to welcome you here;
It gives us a marvelous opportunity,
To stand up, to shout, and to cheer.

For this is a special occasion,
A specific plan we must confess;
To reward a few special people,
Who have made our lives a success.

For without their dedication,
Their support, sweat and tears;
Our Branch members would have suffered,
Without their loving Dears.

And, that is our mission,
On this very wonderful day;
To all the lovely ladies,
We give you a bouquet.

And, we honor each Lady,
With a toast to all;
We owe your our devotion,
You make us feel 10 feet tall.

We wish each of you much happiness,
As you enjoy your special day;
For no matter what you deserve,
We can never fully repay.

So, today we give a salute,
To our Ladies so great;
Good Luck and God Bless You,
This day we dedicate.

Written by: Russell E. Harris
Big Sir, Branch #37